REPORTS OF TOWN BOARD COMMITTEES:

Councilman Giza, for the Street Lighting Committee, reported that he and Supervisor Keysa had inspected the street lighting improvements within Heritage Hills Subdivision and Country View East Subdivision and found most standards to be in compliance with the specifications of the Town of Lancaster. There were several standards, however, that needed to be straightened before acceptance by the Town Board.

Upon certification and inspection of these last few standards, the Town Clerk will be directed to prepare a resolution of acceptance for these improvements.
