“Death Trap”

Deathtrap is a play written by Ira Levin in 1978 with many plot twists and which references itself as a play within a play. When once-successful playwright Sidney Bruhl sees his latest Broadway effort bomb on its opening night, he tumbles into despair -- until he receives a package from his former student Clifford Anderson. Inside is an unproduced script that's better than anything Sidney has written in years. At the urging of his wife, Myra, Sidney undertakes a plan to lure Clifford to his country home, murder him and then announce the script as his own work.
